

Deepening Understanding
UKS2 Historical Narrative
Targeted Inference Questions

This set of questions is based upon the text 'In Flanders Fields' by Laura Curtis.

Q1

Explain why the history of the past was remembered every day?

1 Mark

Q2

When visiting the fields, why were loved ones hugged tighter?

2 Marks

Q3

Although it was difficult, why did the author feel it was essential to picture the horrors in order to pay respect?

1 Mark

Q4

Look at the quote below. How do you think the author felt when standing upon the same patch of ground?

'Feeling the weight of the past upon me, I stepped onwards, on the very same patch of ground other feet once trudged.'

2 Marks

Q5

Suggest two reasons why the author felt privileged when visiting the field.

1) _____

2) _____

2 Marks

Q6

Explain why the author felt tears in her eyes when hearing the sound of the lark singing.

2 Marks

Q7

'A beacon of joy amidst all the sorrow.'
What can you infer from this?

Impression	Explanation

2 Marks

Q8

Despite the different circumstances, why were their hands trembling?

Soldier's hands

Author's hands

2 Marks

