Deepening Understanding UKS2 Non-fiction Text

This set of questions is based upon the text 'The Parthenon' by Laura Curtis.

Q1 What does the word 'emblem' tell you about how the Ancient Greeks viewed the Parthenon?	2
	Mark
Q2 Find a copy a phrase that suggests that Athens world tricky to navigate around.	uld be
	Mark
Q3 'Daminating the harizan from miles around.' What do this suggest about the Parthenon?	oes.

1 Mark

Q4 Explain why the temple was called the 'Parthenon.'.
Mark
Q5 Using the text, find 3 pieces of evidence to suggest that the Parthenon was 'ane magnificent building'.
3 Marks

Q6 Through the text, the author gives the impression that a Ancient Greeks were proud of the Parthenon. Do you ag	the pree?
Yes No
Explain why!
2 M.o.	urks)
Q7 Find the sub-heading 'A Sight (Site!) for Sore Eyes. When has the author written the words 'sight' and 'site'?	ų ark

Q8	The building has been described as 'a lasting legacy What does the author mean by this?

Q9 Consider each statement. Did the Greeks built the Parthenon for religious purposes or to prove their greatness? (Tick \checkmark)

Statement	Religious purposes	To prove greatness
After it was finished, the Parthenon was dedicated to the Goddess Athena.
The Greeks believed they had no rival.
There were intentional decorative carvings of contorted faces of enemies or victorious Greeks.
The Greeks believed Gods and Goddesses controlled their lives and tried hard to make them happy.
The Greeks successfully won many battles and wanted to remind people of this.

1 Mark

Q10 Using the numbers 1-5, put these events in order they happened.	er of when
It was transformed into a mosque for a short time	0
The building was devoted to a Greek Goddess	0
It became a church	0
The architects were directed by a statesman	0
The Greeks were proud of the battles they had won	0
	Mark