

Expressing Stronger Points of View

Your challenge: Modify the language to make these sentences 'stronger', making the point of view more forcefully. I will demonstrate during our live lesson. Also, how could you add to the sentence, including using connectives?

I'm not very happy with what I have just seen.

It might be nice if we all had free school milk.

I feel that the service in the restaurant could have been better.

Homework is unfair, I think.

I think it might be an idea to raise the driving age.

I feel that wearing school uniform is better.

Speed ramps could slow drivers down in Glen Mona.

Perhaps the policy of banning people from entering the U.S.A. was a bit unfair.

Helping raise money for Red Nose Day could make a difference.

I'm a bit upset that some people in the world do not have enough to eat. It seems a bit unfair.

I have a feeling that some people might not be able to look after a dog properly.

I am pleased that the M.H.K.s are working on a bill for equality. I think it matters.

It is better now that there are more female M.H.K.s, but I feel it could be half and half.

The other day I felt sad when I saw a homeless person.

If people paid more tax, then the N.H.S. might be helped.

People should really be treated fairly and their gender shouldn't affect the decision.
