

START

First, Jesus arrived in Jerusalem and everyone went to hear him...

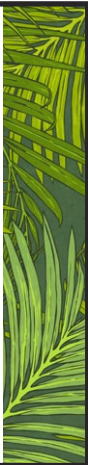

twinkl.com

...preach.

Next, the high priest plotted to kill Jesus. Judas offered to betray Jesus, and was given...

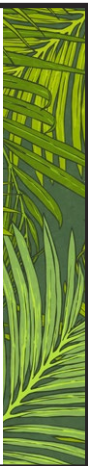

twinkl.com

...thirty pieces of silver.

Then, Jesus and his disciples had their Last...

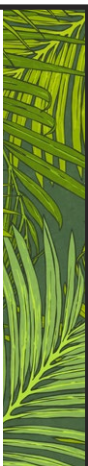

twinkl.com

...Supper..

Jesus predicted that Peter would deny him, Judas would betray him and that he himself would die and then...

twinkl.com

...rise again.

Jesus went to pray in the Garden of...

twinkl.com

...Gethsemane.

When he had finished, Judas showed the soldiers where he was and Jesus was...

twinkl.com

...arrested.

Later, a servant asked Peter if he knew Jesus and Peter...

twinkl.com

...denied it.

When the rooster crowed, Peter knew that he had failed Jesus. The next day, the crowd outside the governor's palace chose to...

twinkl.com

...crucify Jesus.

To mock him for being called 'King of the Jews', Jesus was dressed in purple robes and on his head was a...

twinkl.com

...crown of thorns.

Jesus' cross was carried to a place outside the city, called...

twinkl.com

...Golgotha.

Then, the soldiers nailed Jesus to the cross and hung a sign above his head. When he died, the earth...

twinkl.com

...shook.

After he had died, Joseph of Arimathea asked for Jesus' body and placed him in a...

twinkl.com

...tomb.

He rolled a huge stone over the entrance. The following day, Mary Magdalene and the other women arrived at the tomb, but the stone had been rolled away and the tomb was...

twinkl.com

...empty.

An angel appeared inside the tomb and told the women that Jesus had...

twinkl.com

...risen.

END

twinkl.com